

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 5, 2007

Contact: Darren Nelsen at (404) 353-8938 or darren@curiomusic.com

Turned On: An evening of electronic music featuring Atlanta composers

The Atlanta Composers Group presents Turned On: Electronic Music by Atlanta Composers, at The Five Spot in Little Five Points on Monday, February 19th at 9 p.m. This multimedia concert/presentation, which is free and open to the public, features pre-recorded music and video by fourteen local composers.

Darren Nelsen and Adam Scott Neal organized the concert to raise awareness of Atlanta composers and their music. Mr. Nelsen states, "We have an amazing group of talented composers in the local area. I want people to know about it. This music is brilliant and engaging, with sounds you may not have heard before, yet it's accessible. I'm proud to present it and I think the audience will love it!"

The concert is in the form of pre-recorded music broadcast over PA with synchronized video on a projection screen. Adam Scott Neal will MC the event, sharing information about the composers and their works.

Composers on the program include Colin Bragg, Cousin Virgil, Chip Epsten, Don Hassler, Brent Milam, Adam Scott Neal, Darren Nelsen, Nicole Randall, Michael Thomas Roe, Conrad Schnitzler, Brian Skutle, Oliver Smith, Daniel Swilley, and Mitchell Turner.

The Five Spot is located at 1123 Euclid Avenue in Atlanta. (404) 223-1100

The concert will be followed in the coming weeks by a podcast so listeners may hear the music online.

For more information, visit <http://www.curiomusic.com/concert/>